Race Report

The Scafell 2006 had almost perfect weather, sunshine & the low humidity. 54 started - all finished though one had a fall near the summit & had a badly cut head.

Nick Sharp from Ambleside led Mike Fanning at the summit with less than a minute separating them, as was the situation at the finish. The same held for 3rd counter Tim Austin from Dark Peak & Dan Golding, again Ambleside. The 1st veteran home was CFR's Willie Bell, runner-up Pete Barron from Borrowdale, 3rd Clayton's Ian Robinson. The Vet 50's had faster times than any other vets!! The first V40 was Dave Atkinson from CFR, 2nd Bowland's Neil Shepherd, 3rd Clayton's Kieran Ashworth. The V45 was won by Scafell regular Colin Valentine from Keswick, 2nd Clayton's Andrew Firth, 3rd Andrew Hinde from Settle. The V55 was won by Geoff Somers from Keswick, 2nd Bingley's Peter Jagan, 3rd Martin Walsh from Lytham. The V60 was won by Paul Walsh, also from Lytham. 1st V65 was Richard Clives from Westmorland.

The ladies' race (6 ran - again) was won with an excellent 14th place (8th at the summit...) by Bingley's Natalie White, runner-up & 17th overall was Hazel Jones from Dallam, 3rd was 23rd - placed Keswick's Lyn Thompson, also 1st LV50. Clayton's Sue Allen won the LV45 prize.

The winning team (any 4 gents/ladies) with 106 points were Keswick, comprising Colin Valentine (14), Lyn Thompson (23), Geoff Somers (31), Richard Unwin (38). 3rd & 4th teams were provided by Clayton. Technically Borrowdale could have won with 58 points, but Martin Mikkelson-Barron very sportingly told us he had not been a club member for the required 6 months to count as a team member.

The Jack and Jill couples winners were Tim Austin & Natalie White with only 15 points.

The King of the Mountains (Snowdon / Ben Nevis / Scafell Pike) winner was Kieran Ashworth, 2nd Ron Rees, 3rd Andrew Dugdale.

There were no retirements.

Many thanks to all my helpers & to the Wasdale Head campsite & National Trust for allowing us to use the farmland fields and the race to keep its original course.

Hope you enjoyed the flapjacks, rolls etc., there will be 4 new trophies next year & I'll be brewing up some Scafell Pike ale again....
