Race Report

Race day was forecast bad, but exceeded expectations, high winds on the summits (up to 60mph), copious rain playing havoc with registration paperwork, delaying the start just over 20min. Clag was down to the floor all the way round and turned the area behind Seatallan – Pots of Ashness - into an 'interesting area' for navigators (those without GPSs!). This and several other grey areas resulted in the slowest finish time I have on record beating 1991's bad conditions.

Ben Abdelnoor won in 4hr 33min having been 10 minutes ahead at Seatallan then exchanged places with runner up John Hunt at Great Gable, joined John & Paul Thompson at Esk Hause & the Pike but pulled away to win by 27sec. Paul was just over 1 min behind John.

The ladies winner was Jane Reedy, 19th out of 121 finishers in an excellent 5hrs 11min, 19min in front of Kate Cooper (35th) with Catherine Evans 3rd (52nd).

Again we ran a dibber system & tallies in those appalling conditions.

The points from the Wasdale contribute towards the trophy awarded by Graham Breeze & Brian Martin (www.lakelandclassicstrophy.com) many thanks to them for their encouragement..

1st Gents team was Dark Peak with only 23 points, 2nd Clayton (69) with Ambleside 3rd (85). There was no ladies team (of 3) this year.

Thanks to helpers: Jim Davis, Lindsay Buck, & Roger Jackson & his wife (dibbers) registration & especially John Rea for the car parking, Sam Kirkpatrick time keeping, Greendale etc., Peter o'Neil radio control, Ian Simpson & Rob Stephen on Whin Rigg, John Hill & Jenny Bailie on Seatallan, Richard Green with his wife Diana & sons Nathaniel & Michael – Pillar, Helen Nowak & Andy on Great Gable, Dave Powell-Thompson & Terry Kirton on Esk Hause, Bob Smith & Pete Apps on Scafell Pike, Ian & Brian Finlay on Lingmell Nose. Hannah & Jim Morris with Hannah's daughter Ellie & my step-daughter Hannah for food (& merciful hot drinks!). Joss for the prizes for flagging the valley/Greendale drinks with Mary. Also to the National Trust for the use of the campsite & many thanks to Dave Elthorpe for paramedic cover.

Please note Scafell Pike 25th Sept, King/Queen of the Mountains competition & another Wasdale next year.

Thanks again for coming & making it a great day for ~~clag~~ fell running.
