Pride of place for heroics this year should go to checkpoint controllers and radio operators. Abnormally cold, windy and wet conditions made their task uncomfortable and difficult, so our grateful thanks to them for a job well done. Thanks also to our usual team of helpers who may be assured of the runners gratitude and enjoyment of the event, from the many remarks passed to me. Billy Bland chalked up his fourth C.F.R.A. race victory this year, but not before Andy Styan had made a determined challenge in the closing stages that needed all Billy's resources to resist. Andy's compensation was to receive an engraved silver salver, a perpetual trophy for the race runner up in memory of his club mate and friend Ian Roberts. One of Ian's last races before he died was last year's Wasdale and we are grateful to have on film several shots of him during that race. A great athlete who is sadly missed but will always be remembered by his fell running friends.
