Temperatures soared into the 80's as the 1983 Wasdale Fell Race got under way. Before it ended 59 had retired suffering from heat exhaustion. Billy Bland ran in what he described as nothing more than training pace, keeping himself cool with a sponge strapped to his wrist and dipped in every available stream. As he crossed the finishing line Tony Richardson, second, was just checking in at Scafell Pike.

Veteran Ray Aucott defied encroaching old age with a comfortable 3rd position. Hugh Symonds offered the only challenge to Billy and ran with him until Seatallan. On reaching Pillar he decided that just finishing the course had to take priority and dropped back to finish in eighth position.

A cine film of the race was taken and this will be shown at the C.F.R.A. dinner on November 12th - all are welcome.

Thanks to all helpers, especially John Peel, C.F.R.A. member, whose computer program and equipment for registration and results has reduced the secretarial work load considerably. Thank's also to George Fisher of Keswick for sponsoring first prize and John Wild for donating the junior trophy.

D Hughes (Hon Secretary)
