

Note that the race start is within the car parking field, the runners do a partial lap to thin out the crush then use the path on the north side of Lingmell Gill. You do not cross the stream any more. The route follows the red dotted line to the summit & back. The finish is also within the car parking field.